H & B will not be held responsible for damage of sealer during initial curing time (48 hours after application)

due to pop-up showers, dirt, mud, cold temperatures, lawn chemicals, mulch stains, sprinklers, water from gutters/air conditioners, animal, foot, or vehicle traffic. H & B is not responsible for any sealer that may get on garage doors, any part of the house, buildings, hardscaping or landscaping, or sidewalks due to pop up showers or anything else listed here. There will be a fee charged if the driveway has to be resealed or touched up again including a cost to redo the crack filling/patch work after the initial sealing due to pop up showers or any other factors listed here during the curing time or after that time.

H & B will not be responsible for damage due to standing water, dirt, mud, water from gutters/air conditioners, physical damage, cold temperatures, snow plows/snow removal, tire chains, gas, oil, chemicals, mulch stains, or antifreeze spills. H & B is not responsible for areas directly beneath overhanging trees as they may not maintain uniform coverage due to heavy tree sap in the asphalt which prevents long term sealer adhesion. H & B is not responsible for any sealer that might get on garage doors, any part of the house, buildings, hardscaping, landscaping, and sidewalks due to pop up showers or anything else listed here during and after the curing time. Expect to see some tire marks, possibly for several weeks, after seal coating is done. This is especially true in the heat of the summer. This is normal and they will go away on their own. Please note that we are not responsible for moving basketball stands. We will just seal around the stands. If water sits or flows down a portion of the driveway, the sealer may wear down faster. If the driveway has white stone prior to sealing it, you may see the white stone before a year after it has been sealed. It is recommended to seal a white stoned driveway back to back years. A newly paved driveway or a driveway that has not been sealed for a long time may need to be sealed again the following year for best results and to protect it from damage caused by weather, road chemicals and salt.

PROCLAMATION

JUNETEENTH NATIONAL FREEDOM DAY

Whereas, on January 1, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation declaring all enslaved people in the Confederate states to be forever free. Nevertheless, slavery persisted for another two and a half years in some states; and

Whereas, celebrated annually on June 19, Juneteenth commemorates the day of June 19, 1865 when Union Army Major General Gordon Granger read General Order #3 announcing to the people of Galveston, Texas that all enslaved African Americans were free; and

Whereas, Juneteenth, also known as Emancipation Day or National Freedom Day, is celebrated as the day that slavery ended in the United States; and

Whereas, Juneteenth was first recognized as a state holiday in Texas in 1980. In 2019, Pennsylvania Governor Tom Wolf joined Texas and several other states in recognizing the holiday by signing legislation designating June 19 as “Juneteenth National Freedom Day” in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, in 2021, Juneteenth was declared a federal holiday when President Joe Biden signed the “Juneteenth National Independence Day Act” into law with bi-partisan support; and

Whereas, since 2021, the Township of Haverford has recognized and observed “Juneteenth National Freedom Day” annually; and

Whereas, residents in the Township of Haverford are encouraged to join the nation in honoring Juneteenth by acknowledging the contributions made by African Americans to our country and celebrating the resilience of African American people in overcoming their history of enslavement and their continued fight against systemic racism.

Now Therefore Be It Proclaimed, that the Board of Commissioners of the Township of Haverford in Delaware County, Pennsylvania hereby recognizes June 19, 2023 as “Juneteenth National Freedom Day,” celebrates the culture and achievements of African Americans in spite of a history of struggle and oppression, and recommits to the work of fighting systemic racism to ensure progress in our community and prosperity for all.

Proclaimed this 12th day of June, 2023.
